DRESSING: There will be a designated preparation area for dancers, away from the audience.

This is a shared space with 3 private changing areas for all participants. Please limit the valuables that you bring into this space. There are no lockers. There will be room to stretch and warm up and the floor of the preparation area is concrete. There are a few mirrors available but space is limited. Please arrive early to get ready. We recommend bringing a battery for your phone because there is no access to power. There are no bathrooms within the changing area. There are public bathrooms within a 2-minute walk from the changing area that are public restrooms for Union Station.

Fall for Dance North will provide dancers with light snacks and bottled water.

There are no provided overnight accommodations for Tkaronto Open II participants.
